In speaking with Dan Grady, Regional Security Manager of Chase Bank, Chase is having its CEO, Jamie Dimon speak at a town hall style meeting at Chase Field [redacted] on Wednesday, October 19. Invitees include approximately 2000 Chase employees. Because of the issues with large banks and the Occupy Phoenix event, this event may have an impact.

Between myself and Geoff Ballentine, we have not seen anything on social networking that leads us to believe protestors are aware of this event.

The schedule for the event is as follows:

Jamie Dimon will arrive in Phoenix on Tuesday evening, 10/18, around 1700 hours, he will be staying at the Westin downtown.
He will speak to the town hall group at Chase Field beginning at 10am and will remain at the Chase Field until approximately 1pm.
He will then go to the Phoenician Hotel [redacted] until approximately 1430 hours, then depart for the airport and fly out of Phoenix on Wednesday evening, 10/19.

Also, as a reminder, Herman Cain is at the Phoenix Convention Center tonight for a fundraising activity.

Bosses:

I was contacted by Mark Schweikert and asked to send Saul to the planning meeting this past Sunday for intel gathering only at this point. We are more than happy to assist if needed on the date of the event. From there I was assuming there would be a meeting with HDB, DOU, 400, etc., to discuss what if any response/planning would be needed. If you of to their to the #OccupyPhoenix page on Facebook it contains most of the details. You have to read some of the comments to get the "bigger" picture, but it appears there is some type of March on Friday 10/14 and the event on 10/15. I think they want the march on 10/14 simply because people will be working downtown and they want the media coverage, which they are not likely to get if they hold the entire event on Saturday 10/15. Let me know if we can help further. Lastly, this is also the "Day of Rage." I am not sure if #OccupyPhoenix and Day of Rage are one of the same and there is information on both listed on Facebook and in a New Times article. Thanks.

I agree with John, but we need more info on the size of the demonstration and participants before we finalize a plan. These very often are hyped and not many actually show. I will get with Mark Schweikert to discuss permits and potential size of the group.

Boss,Mark & Mike:(please forward as appropriate)

Saul attended the "#OccupyPhoenix" meeting at Conspire on 10/2. They had a fairly decent turn out but the Anarchists did not pay much attention to the "political protestors" and just observed. You likely already know but #OccupyPhoenix appears to be an Arizona group of individual political protestors similar to Occupy Wall Street currently taking place in NYC. They are still planning a protest for 10/15 and claim they will disrupt peacefully and go to jail. I strongly suggest their FB page be monitored for additional information, times, locations, etc. as they keep changing. Here are last nights meeting notes:

Oct. 2nd, #OccupyPhoenix Agenda

1) Introductions – 5 min.
2) Ground Rules – 5 min. - Justine
a) No speaking over one another, raise hand to add to discussion
b) Step up – Step back
3) Approve agenda – 5 min.
a) Any additions or deletions?
4) Recap last Thurs. meeting – 5 min. Alex
5) Recap meeting at Braggs – 10 min. – Justine
6) Recap Sat. Street Action – 5 min. Bobby and Brian
7) Follow up on donations centers – 7 min. - All
8) Updates from media crew – 5 to 10 min. - Brian
9) Gene, lawyer. – 10 min.
10) Coordinating with police.
11) Create outreach teams – 10 min.
a) Break out groups for outreach teams to organize outreach plans – 15 min.
12) Create networking teams – 10 min.
a) Break out – 15 min.

group, logistics team, ASU group, sanitation, food and water, outreach to unions, locations for occupation group, street team groups, legal group, organization for Friday march group, transportation organization group, outreach to local business's for bathrooms and camp out group,

15) Coordinating with the police- discussion
16) People speaking on the 15th- group
17) Legally occupy the streets and march perpetually.
18) Contact Unions in the area.
19) Discuss working with police. You are one of us signs.
20) Carpools and set up times.
21) The day of Rage- event they will be at the capital.
22) Don't assume that your ideals are the same as everyone else's. Stop using discriminatory labels.
23) Baseball game on that day.
24) ASU presence.
25) Ride share on craigslist.
26) Start at the capital and end at cesar chavez plaza.
27) End Friday march at 5pm so the news can cover it.
28) ACLU website-how to deal with the police.
29) Actively reach out to the tea party. Broaden your message and narrowing your focus.
30) People on twitter thought this march was for immigration. We need to be on message. Boil down our message to a few sentences' that are clear and cohesive. Post on facebook.
31) What is the goal? What are you representing?
32) Fed reserve and capitol building on Friday also.
33) Legal sub meeting.
34) Mapping a route for the march.
35) Keep your money spent locally.
36) Pull out your money from.
37) Act Blue- Accounting information-
38) Create a non-violence event everyday. 6pm

- Another action before the occupation
- Trash idea – brooms – sign on back "we're cleaning up America"
- Occupy one space and march to other buildings(banks etc)
- Put address as cesar chavez plaza is in w phoenix.
- Follow city ordinances.

Exactly, finding out what the Anarchists are doing and how they are organizing is still difficult. However, they continue to show up and somewhat listen to the planning activities of others. #OccupyPhoenix appears to be getting organized by way of food, medical, attorneys, de-arrestors (as they call them) and media. If we get any additional information or you hear of another meeting prior to 10/15 please contact us. Lastly, 10/15 is also GAIN night out and likely has tapped a lot of Precinct resources. I would recommend that if we haven't done so, PPD start planning an appropriate response for this event (NET, DOU, etc) as a lot is going on that day. Any other thoughts?

Occupy Phoenix Event:

[redacted] and [redacted]

On October 14th, a conglomeration of groups protesting the banking institutions and financial environment in the United States gathered at Civic Space Park [redacted] The protest crowd size grew to approximately 300 protestors. They marched in the afternoon through downtown Phoenix, making stops at Chase Bank Building, Bank of America, Wells Fargo Building.

At approximately 4pm, the group went to Channel 12 at [redacted] where they protested in the background of the telecast. Channel 12 offered an interview on their telecast as long as there is a single spokesperson and their signs have no vulgarity, which occurred.

Protesters continued afterwards to Caesar Chavez Plaza to continue protesting. Police responded and gave warnings to the crowd that the plaza closed at 6 pm and refusal to leave would result in trespassing. By 7 pm, all the protesters vacated the plaza and no arrests were made

Police had assets deployed from primarily Downtown Operations Unit, Community Response Squad, Homeland Defense Bureau, Traffic Bureau and Patrol to manage this activity.

On October 15th, National day of protest, the multiple organizations again assembled at Caesar Chavez Plaza beginning at about 10 am. They set up a loudspeaker and DJ. The crowd grew to about 1,000 as they assembled throughout the day until late afternoon. Protest organizers indicated that they wanted to move their protest to Margaret T. Hance Park.

A group of about 400 protesters were moved to the park by motor officers. They remained there protesting in the park until it closed at 10 pm. Beginning at about 11 pm, the protestors were given multiple verbal warnings that the park was closed and they were ordered to leave. In total,45 protestors refused to leave and were arrested by the Field Force Teams.

An Incident management team (IMT) was stood up for the event on October 15th that included assets from Homeland Defense Bureau, Fugitive Apprehension Unit, Downtown Operations Unit, Community Response Squad, Traffic Bureau and Patrol to manage this activity. Liaisons include: DPS, Parks and Rec., Public Works, and City Prosecutors office.

On October 16th, a group of protesters showed up at Cesar Chavez Plaza in the morning remained there until 6 pm, closing time. There wre about 100 protesters at most. Police again gave a series of warnings to crowd to vacate. The Crowd size reduced to size until a about 40 protesters gravitated to the sidewalks to continue protesting. Three people were arrested, including one for trespassing and two for creating an unsafe hazard in the street.

All,
The "Loop 202 Resistance!" group posted a flyer on the "Occupy AZ Website" listing 3 protests, one happened in Tempe on Friday, and the next one is planned for the Maricopa Association of Governments Office (Also City Transit Department) at 1st Ave and Van Buren ([redacted]) at 4pm. While it isnt organized by the "Occupy AZ group, the fact that it appears on their website makes it a concern.

LT. Bryan Coley,
May I suggest that you reach out to Commander Alexander (DOU and Police Transit Bureau) and coordinate coverage for this protest. If it looks like the "occupy" folks are going to get invovled DOU may need to supplement our efforts. Commander Alexander will keep in touch with Debbie Cotton of the Transit Department.

Good afternoon,
Today has been quiet. There are approximately 20-30 people at Chavez Plaza as of right now. In speaking with Major Orose, there were approximately 35 people that showed up to the Capitol to protest Michelle Bachman and Sheriff Arpaio. He said he believed that most of them were not Occupy AZ persons, just there to specifically protest the two speakers. There were no issues.

It has been quiet downtown today. We will continue to monitor social media and the Herman Cain event tonight. Sgt. Schweikert informed me that the protestors would like a portable bathroom. I spoke to David Leinenveber on this topic and he said that according to law, you need a bathroom for every 100 persons at an event/gathering. I assume that there would be some sort of permit requirement and of course someone to pay for it. We are still researching this. I will keep you posted if anything further arises.

All,
I have talked to Mark Schweikert this morning. We both have detectives monitoring multiple social media sites to stay on top of this situation. It appears that some are getting frustrated that more people are not involved with these protests. I hope this is a good thing for us. There has been some talk of possibly protesting at some downtown banks today. Mark's squad will keep an eye on the protestors to see where they end up. Last week we had communication with the banks downtown on this issue and we will continue to work with them. There have been a few posts about going to the Capitol today. I have communicated this to Major Orose already and he has alerted Capitol PD. We do not expect any problems today and I hope their numbers continue to dwindle. We are also monitoring the Herman Cain visit tonight, but we do not anticipate any problems with that visit either. I will continue to provide updates as information becomes available.

Inger,
We were aware of the march on the 14th. If the organizers did make contact would a permit be issued? The current absence if a permit could supply some enforcement leverage in Civic Space Park.

Mark, was obtaining a permit discussed by the march organizers at their planning meeting?

Tracy,

We are generally very conservative with type and size of events held at Civic Space Park since the Light Rail borders both sides of the park. We would need to consult with the Streets Department as well as Police about the March portion. The gathering at the park would not necessarily require a permit unless organizers expected it to be more than 50 people and then it is referred to as a Special Activity Request (SAR).

Chief,

At this time, we are not aware of any permit inquiries for Civic Space Park. Their preliminary plan is to use Civic Space Park as an assembly area.

There have been inquiries by various citizens to obtain a permit in reference to Chavez Plaza. Their inquiries have centralized around applying for a permit at Chavez Plaza and we have directed them to speak to Mike Jankowski.

We asked them to provide us with a route of march which is now posted on their Facebook page.

Also, their planned gathering at Chavez Plaza has changed to 1200 hours from 1000 hours for Saturday.

Please understand this group is changing their plans on a regular basis. We can expect to see changes on the fly while the demonstrations are in progress due to the lack of their groups organization and focus.

Mark,
Understood, but Jankowski is the responsible party for PCH, but he doesn't "issue permits". Who at city hall would issue such a permit for a gathering at Chavez Plaza, and what if anything have we prepared Jankowski to say when he gets these inquiries? Rob, do you want to track him down and discuss?

Jeff,
I agree we must nip camping as soon as we see it, I wouldn't even wait for the park to reach closing hours. Indicia of camping is defined in the statute and if we see it, we should enforce it immediately. Parks Employees will call us when they see it. As for Chavez plaza, we wont allow camping there tomorrow if we see it, however, we can't prohibit people from being there (as long as they don't camp or break other laws) so protesters can be there, just not in tents...

All,
Inger Erickson from parks will designate someone to be the contact regarding camping permits in parks. No permits exist or will be issued and after park hours trespassing will be enforced.

With regard to Chavez Plaza, Mike Jankowski is the Responsible Party, not Parks Dept. We are keeping him in the loop.

As of this am we have not identified any requests for permits to demonstrate or march. We expect demonstrations on the 15th and a march on the 14th both in the down town. A planning meeting will b held Thursday to formalize our response.

Updates to follow. PD intel updates will come through Lt. Hein .Please communicate all updates and inquiries through him. Thanks all

Toni and Mark,

I spoke with Chief Montgomery and agreed that the Parks and Recreation staff should respond to the questions related to the Parks and Camping.

Randy Singh, Park and Recreation Supervisor[redacted]6 office, will be the point person for Parks and Recreation in the field and can answer the questions below based on established park rules and the park camping ordinance G-3552, G-4660 and city code 23-30,48.01 and 23-8 respectfully. We will make contact today. Please include Randy in any meeting that are applicable for these activities, his email is[redacted].

If there are activities in Cesar Chavez Plaza that area is managed by Public Works and Mike Jankowski is the point person for that area.

As another point of information, if Woodland Parkway is an area the groups are considering that area has been and still is closed.

Please feel free to include me as needed.

Larry,
Can you gather intel today from Sgt. Schweikert, our TMU folks monitoring social media, and any other intel streams and give me an update on our potential for ongoing "Occupy" protests this week.

A kid that ID's himself as Romeo Poetry was on Ch 12 this am from Caesar Chavez indicating that they had finally found the "loophole" in the law and that it was legal for them to stay on the side walk around Chavez Plaza all night. He said something about sleeping on the sidewalk over night. He also indicated that people are bringing them food. It may be time to start exploring the public health angle on that, and where they seem to be using the restroom. I know 5 guys during the day, but where are they going at night? Let's get a legal opinion on sidewalk/public right of way camping (citizens do it every time apple rolls out a new iPhone).

Geary,
Based on this info we will need to decide the plan for monitoring these individuals long term. Maybe you can present a framework for that after discussing it with Lt. Coley, Lt. Lazell, and the folks from 400?

Thanks all, we have been an amazingly successful team throughout this adventure.

Joe and Geary,
See below. I think the single most important decision we have made to date was the one to not allow camping in Hance Park, and subsequently Chavez Plaza. The decision did not come without some significant bumps and bruises that night, but it was the right thing to do. I have seen four reports in the last 2 days regarding the other encampments coming down in major cities and it is a civil disturbance and public health nightmare.

Joe, I suspect you already know this, but coming out to support Geary and I on this was huge and we both appreciated your leadership on it. It was an awkward situation with the Manager/Mayor issues. It is paying off every day for us now. thank you for that!

Project Extension Request Form

Arizona Department of Homeland Security

Subgrantee Information

Grant Agreement Number:	777213-03
Date of Request:	7/21/2011
Original Period of Performance:	10/01/10 - 09/30/11
Funding Source: (i.e. SHSGP/UASI/CCP/OPSG)	SHSGP 2010 (ACTIC Intelligence Analyst)
Award Amount:	1,016,897.00
Amount Reimbursed to Date:	93,192.63
Agency:	Phoenix Police Department
Point of Contact:	Anthony Jones
Email:	anthony.jones@phoenix.gov
Phone:	602-644-5711

Extension Justification

1. Provide a detailed justification and explanation for extending the period of performance.	This is a funding extension request for the SHSGP 2010 ACTIC Intelligence Analyst project. This project supports the Analyst and IT Planner positions at the ACTIC that are critical to the implementation and integration of complex data systems that are ongoing. The projects involve the identification, purchase, and installation of various IT components and the connection of those components to separate data systems. This project complements the UASI 2009 and 2011 Unified Intelligence Analyst Project efforts. Coordination between various groups to accomplish the project mission has been arduous. Due to the complex nature of the City of Phoenix's vendor purchasing and employee hiring processes, the new analyst position has only recently been filled, and the identification of a vendor capable of such a robust and complex analytic data system has proven exceptionally time consuming. The salaries of the Analyst and IT Planner positions will continue to be paid through the conclusion of the extension period, or when salary funds have been depleted, whichever comes first. The remaining items for data system acquisition and implementation are in process and require support from the analyst and IT specialist positions.
2. What is the new timeline for completion, including all major milestones? Please include specific date(s) and a deliverable or objective for each project milestone.	08/31/2011-01/31/2012: Complete the Request for Proposal (RFP) process. 01/31/2012-03/31/2012: Obtain Phoenix City Council approval and enter into contract with vendor 03/31/2012-07/31/2012: Review and coordinate final purchase plans with contractors to insure system component compatibility. Execute installation of equipment. 07/31/2012-09/30/2012: Work with vendor to finalize installation and programming. Perform testing of equipment and data networks.

Hi Brenda,

Sorry this is so late.

Gwyn Nguyen is the analyst for TOPD and can be emailed at gwyn.nguyen@tonation-nsn.gov . I have cc'd her on this email.

As for the anarchists, the main incident we had was on May 21, 2010 when they put on dragon sleeves and performed a sit-in at Tucson Sector Headquarters. I forget who I spoke with, maybe Dan Wong or Chris Adamczyk, but they stated the same individuals involved in our incident were the ones involved with protests in your area. They were also active in California and if I remember correctly, at least one of them (I think Alex Soto) is related to a higher ranking member in the TO's tribal council. The name of the group here is Tohono O'Odham Solidarity Across Borders. The individuals arrested were Francisco Habre, DOB [redacted]82, Shawn Putnam [redacted]82, Klee Benally [redacted]75, Nadia Delcallejo [redacted]84, and Alexander Soto 122885.

Last year, they appeared in court. The charge for criminal trespassing was dismissed and the individuals were found not guilty on the charge of disorderly conduct with serious disruptive behavior. Here are a few of the websites, note Alex Soto is the contact.

http://survivalsolidarity.wordpress.com/against-border-militirization/

http://bsnorrell.blogspot.com/2011/06/border-patrol-protesters-call-to-action.html

Aside from this group, Ofelia Rivas with the O'Odham Solidarity Project has been active in both our cities, but does not cross into criminal behavior as far as I know. Her website is below.

Hope this helps.

Good Morning Carmen,

We have been working with issues regarding local anarchist. During the 2010 SB 1070 march, we had some trouble from anarchist that had come up from Tohono O'Odham. I am working on getting photos from march, but I was wondering if you could assist in any information regarding local movements there. I found some info on the web, but I need a starting place. We have an analyst Gwen there in Tohono O'Odham, but I don't have her contact info.

Is this something that you could look into? Please see specific request below. I will continue my research in the meantime. Thanks.

Hi Brenda

this may be a long shot...but do we have any photos from the initial SB1070 protests related to the anarchists that were so disruptive?

Im looking in particular to pics of the anarchists that are from the Tohono o' odham tribe. There were several that were extremely disruptive during the protests at the State Capitol and in the streets around the State Capitol.

Just a heads up...
I received a call from Mesa TLO Chris Adamczyck that one of their counsel members received an emailed invitation from an unnamed Occupy Phoenix. The message stated that they are planning to Occupy the Bank of America lobby at Alma School & Southern in Mesa around 0900 hrs. They want to send a message to the president that B of A needs to be investigated.

I looked into it a little further and it looks like it was organized by MoveOn.org, but advertising as Occupy Phoenix. Websites are not working or are blacked out. I will try and obtain more info in the morning.

Please see Derek Pittam's from yesterday's pre-May Day events in Tempe. I will keep my eyes out regarding the possible SRP event in Tempe on May 7th. We have additional information that may confirm Occupy/Anarchist presence there next week.

You may want to check out [redacted] They are pretty chattery on the social media portion, but I can't get it to open. They say "The AAC and friends are ready and waiting for tomorrows general strike in Scotts..."

They tried to take the lot they wanted but were turned away by PD. Some anarchists (very anti-police) were in the group of 50 or so. When turned away they found a small sliver of public right away and we observed them from a distance as they did a park. There was a thought that some teens in the group had done graffiti on a city "no trespassing" sign (it was washable spray paint). When those persons were contacted the group surged and became confrontational. At this time, Drew Sullivan immediately came out of the woodwork for the first time, but quickly left. That was his only appearance of the day. Our local interference actions (for better or worse) did appear to have an impact. We did not have "Black Bloc" emerge and no real presence of the more well-known faces.

Just got a text from a co-worker at home sick monitoring the real live streaming they are doing. Someone just made the comment out of camera site, "you know what's next?...SRP next week." We got rumor of this, but I could not find anything on open source. Could you check on this and see if there is anything out there? It was believed to be May 7th.

That is all for now. We are happy this turned out to be a no arrests thing (so far), the surrounding neighborhoods

Tempe Police Homeland Defense Unit detective issues anti-anarchist letter ahead of "Take Back the Commons" event for 4/29/12

Below we have published an interesting email that came our way concerning tomorrow's expropriation of the unused and now vacant and bulldozed land where the Gentle Strength Co-op once stood. A few things are worth noting.

First, the cops are trying to divide the community. They use classic red-baiting and anarchist fear-mongering tactics to attempt to convince locals and business owners to support a police assault on people who think that fallow land should not remain so merely because some Canadian land speculator wants to keep some property unused. They don't say it, but it is likely that they continue to be threatened by the level of support that local anarchists have developed in Tempe, perhaps most visibly displayed during 2010's anti-SB1070 organizing, neighborhood assemblies, march and protests. Hundreds came out then, unafraid of the fact that anarchists were organizing. Second, we can boil down the cops' argument to this: "we don't want to look bad attacking people who want to use unused land (after all, we are the defenders of property first and foremost), so we want to make sure that only people who will look bad on camera -- anarchists -- are present for the police attack". You know what, cops? There's an easy way to avoid looking bad attacking people trying to use empty corporate land for community purposes: don't attack them. I know that's hard for cops to do, being that they are a violent bunch of thugs. But, who are the defenders of community? The "anarchists" who want to create a commons or the cops who attack the community in defense of corporate property?

Center for Media and Democracy

A few other interesting points: this property is controlled and left unused by the same company that owns Zuccotti Park. Also, cops have been visiting local businesses to get them to oppose the occupation. Another is that Tempe PD bike cops, which Officer Pittam used to be part of, got training from the Eugene PD after the first Tempe May Day protest, which they deployed the following year in brutal fashion, as is their general tendency. This was facilitated by the nationalization of local policing that has generally prevailed under the post-9/11 regime. And the TPD has tried this scare-mongering before. Note that Pittam himself is now a part of the "Homeland Defense Unit". What "homeland"? Unused corporate property homeland? What they want is for us to leave that property empty until some out of town land-speculating company can finally make a profit.

For the total expropriation of the capitalist class. Also, Pittam needs an editor.

I write this to you because as you know my career has led me to have a close relationship with the residents and businesses in and about the downtown Tempe area. In fact, several years ago, the Maple Ash community honored me with a "Friend of Community" award. Community members have always known that I am aggressively proactive on issues of crime prevention. This is no different, and I am very concerned that the planners of this event have not disclosed important information in their quest to gain the support of local residents and businesses.

May Day "AM" Update

There is very little to report regarding today's events. I will continue to monitor and report anything I see.

There is almost complete silence from May Day organizers for Scottsdale or any other event. Except for one comment that pokes fun at the media for standing out by "The Statute" in Scottsdale wondering if anyone is going to show up and how many they can expect [redacted]

Occupy Phoenix is passively discussing their "May Day General Strike Learn-In and Community Meet-Up" which has garnered around "27" supporters. The groups plans to meet at Civic Space Park at 1430 hrs to 1630 hrs.

Other events around the country...

*In San Francisco, demonstrators are being blamed for vandalism on a police station. vandals smashed windows and threw paint at the police station and damaged the property of businesses and vehicles."
- Occupiers are frustrated that "the anarchists" had to come in and ruin everything for them.

*In Ohio, 5 five anarchists were arrested for attempting to blow up a bridge. This is reported part of an ongoing sting operation.

*In Washington, D.C., May Day demonstrators committed acts of vandalism by painting "Foreclosed" on bank windows (Bank of America).

*In Chicago, Activists are targeting bank branches in the downtown area by hold sit-ins, where protestors physically blocked the entrance to the banks. There is no report of arrests or violent behavior. It is believed to be "Occupy-related" in light of May Day. First bank targeted is Bank of America.

*In New York, large groups have gathered to protest, whereby disrupting traffic flow. Police have begun to make arrests.

Lt,
I wanted to send you what I have so far. There is a TLO meeting this morning, then we will be discussing the ALEC conference coming to Phoenix. With computer issues I didn't have an opportunity to add that Occupy is holding a training on Sun, Nov. 19th from 1400 hrs to 1700 hrs for a ALEC Awareness Workshop. More information to come. I am also working on a national report for you.

Also, we need to discuss issues regarding web-searching many of these social media sites and whether or not I should be doing it on a "clean" computer. I am looking at options, but wanted you to be aware. If I had a laptop (circle discussion), I would be able to add an anonymizer, but my understanding is that I cannot for DPS or PHX.

I've been off for a couple days, so not sure if you all have already heard this...but it looks like OP now has an actual "base" to work out of. This was just "announced" 13 hours ago...I can work to find the address, but I would venture a guess that our downtown unit or confrontation squad already knows where it is.

(See attachment) All she mentions is 1st Ave...no exact address.

This follows what has been occuring at several other Occupy Camps across the U.S. They rent (or buy) reidential structures or warehouses near the encampment and that is where they all "crash" to get away from the "Urban Camping" arrests.

Great news! #Occupy Phoenix now has a house on 1st Ave. It's a satellite location to makeOccupy Phoenix more sustainable. Those who have been occupying 24/7 will be able to take naps, people who want to cook for Occupy Phoenix will have a kitchen to use that is right down the street, etc.

I've been off for a couple days, so not sure if you all have already heard this...but it looks like OP now has an actual "base" to work out of. This was just "announced" 13 hours ago...I can work to find the address, but I would venture a guess that our downtown unit or confrontation squad already knows where it is.

(See attachment) All she mentions is 1st Ave...no exact address.

This follows what has been occuring at several other Occupy Camps across the U.S. They rent (or buy) reidential structures or warehouses near the encampment and that is where they all "crash" to get away from the "Urban Camping" arrests.

Subject: 'Anonymous'-Linked Hackers Expose Personal Information Of Thousands Of American Police Officers, Family-Values Advocates--MMC IOI #7082-11

Location: United States

Computer hackers are avenging the Occupy movement by exposing the personal information of police officers who evicted protesters and are threatening family-values advocates who led a boycott of an American Muslim television show.

In three Internet postings last week, hackers from the loose online coalition called Anonymous published the personal information of thousands of law enforcement officers all over the country.

One hacker posted the email and physical addresses, phone numbers and encrypted passwords of more than 2,400 police officers and corporate security executives. The targeted police officers and security personnel were members of the Coalition of Law Enforcement and Retail (CLEAR), a nonprofit group that promotes cooperation between local police forces and retail corporations throughout the United States.

Another hacker struck the website of the Florida Family Association. In an Internet posting, he told the family association he was reading its email, and he published email addresses and partial credit-card information of two dozen or so of the group's supporters.

A third hacker posted 18,000 emails, names and passwords of customers from Specialforces.com, a website that sells military-style clothing and weapon accessories. A brief review suggested that many of the customers might be police officers or military personnel and identifiable as such by their emails.

Lt,
The next few days for Occupy appear to be more of a celebratory nature. They have changed their trip to Flagstaff until the 31st (2 people going so far). I have contacted Flagstaff TLOs with the change. They are also advertising the Fiesta Bowl Block Party in Tempe from 5pm to 12:30am.

I will be out of the office next week, but will pass it on if I happen to run across anything pertinent. The only major events are the Mayor's Inauguration. See details below.

When: Tue, January 3, 2012, 10:00am - 11:30am
Where: [redacted] downtown Orpheum (map)
Description: Come celebrate as Greg Stanton is inaugurated into the Mayoral seat. Orpheum Theatre.

OP Flash Mob?

Been on several FB pages today from O.P. participants. They all seem to be talking about doing something like this in Phx...no concrete dates set - but the discussion is at a mall, post christmas. I know one girl sent this message out to a group called Occupy Phoenix Student Movement (appears to be high school and ASU college students / about 75 of them) and they were trying to drum up participation.

The benefit we have going for us, is the coordination it takes to set up a flash mob (especially a dance routine like the one in the video) is pretty extensive. But just to create a "flash mob" protest / sit-in would be a new tactic we haven't dealt with this group yet. I'll keep watching twitter and FB to see if this moves past the discussion phase, and let you all know when and where.

Sirs, Sgt Kotecki passed along to me that the some Occupy Phoenix demonstrators have been provided shelter at a private residence located at [redacted]. The resident of the home is providing shelter, shower access, transportation, and food to some of the folks. I have checked with the Alarm Room and no calls have been generated at the address for the last 3 weeks. CAD shows E6 as the closest engine company for response. PD relays no credible threat with the folks or address at this time. I am sure they will continue to monitor it with their Community Response Squad and a liaison they have assigned to the Occupy Phoenix movement. I have not entered in a premise alert for the address and will take direction if that is the route you all would like to take. I will advise the Car 958 Captains of the address for their awareness and if we need to inform Car 99 for any code issues I will facilitate that need with FP. I will continue to monitor any developments with this address with Sgt. Kotecki and pass along any pertinent information to you all, Shift Commanders and E6 Captains. Thank you.

FW: "Occupy" notice for CLPs

Dowhan, Brenda
Sent: Monday, October 10, 2011 12:30 PM
To: ONeill, Jennifer
Cc: Kotecki, Pat; Hein, Lawrence

Jenn,
The information below has been approved to send out to CLPs. For the Downtown Partnership, are you just wanting to add dates, times, places of demonstrations?

Arizona is preparing for demonstration events that are related to the anti-corporate "Occupy Wall Street" movement that began on September 17, 2011 in New York City. The movement is spreading across the country and expected in several cities in Arizona Friday, October 14th, and Saturday October 15th, 2011.

The goals of this movement are vague and vary; however, their central message is corporate greed, social inequality, and lack of jobs. Potential targets are banks, mortgage institutions, and insurance firms. Though financial institutions appear to be the primary target of these demonstrations, they have been known to enter and cause disruptions in other types of businesses. Many diverse groups could participate, including students, young college members, union members, jobless individuals, and retirees. The movement is gaining a lot of media attention and support from very influential groups and celebrities.

Event organizers have stressed non-violence and offer training to participants in how to demonstrate peacefully. Please note: These protests are protected by the First Amendment. As long as protestors stay on public property and are not engaging in criminal acts, they have the right to voice their opinions/views.

If you are experiencing problems with demonstrators, please call your local police department. Further, please report any suspicious activity to the ACTIC at [redacted]

Please let me if you have any questions.

Sgt Kotecki,
Below is the information that I will be giving to Jennifer O'Neil to send to CLPs and will be going into AZPASS. I tried to make it as generic as possible. Jenn is also requesting a more detailed version to go out to Downtown partners, however, I don't know if we want to go into much more detail, except for known times of events. Please advise...

Arizona is preparing for demonstration events that are related to the anti-corporate "Occupy Wall Street" movement that began on September 17, 2011 in New York City. All,
Inger Erickson from parks will designate someone to be the contact regarding camping permits in parks. No permits exist or will be issued and after park hours trespassing will be enforced.

With regard to Chavez Plaza, Mike Jankowski is the Responsible Party, not Parks Dept. We are keeping him in the loop.

As of this am we have not identified any requests for permits to demonstrate or march. We expect demonstrations on the 15th and a march on the 14th both in the down town. A planning meeting will b held Thursday to formalize our response.

Updates to follow. PD intel updates will come through Lt. Hein .Please communicate all updates and inquiries through him. Thanks all.

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION
SITUATIONAL INFORMATION REPORT
Phoenix Division

(U) 12 October 2011

(U//FOUO) Potential Hacktivist Activity and Anarchist Participation in the "Occupy Phoenix" and "Occupy Tucson" Arizona Protests

(U//FOUO) The FBI Phoenix division is releasing this Situational Information Report to raise awareness of demonstrations which have been endorsed and promoted by hacktivist[1] groups and publicized on various social networking sites to include, Internet Relay Chat (IRC), Facebook, Twitter, and Reddit, as well as an anarchist forum located within Reddit's site[i]. The planned demonstrations in Arizona appear to constitute First Amendment protected activity; however some participants in previous "Occupy" events held in New York, Iowa, Los Angeles, and Boston were arrested for not obeying the cities' local laws. Moreover, in support of the New York protests, Anonymous, the loose collective known for its cyber activity, has recently declared to launch a cyber attack against the New York Stock Exchange (NYSE) as a show of support to the Occupy events.[ii]

(U//FOUO) Phoenix and Tucson Events

(U//FOUO) The "Occupy Phoenix"[iii] event is scheduled to commence with a pre-occupation march on Friday, October 14th at 3:00pm at [redacted] in [redacted]. Following the march, on Saturday, October 15th individuals participating in the "Occupy Phoenix" event are expected to meet at the Cesa[redacted], located at [redacted].

(U) Warning: This is an information report, not finally evaluated intelligence. It is being shared for information purposes but has not been fully evaluated, integrated with other information, interpreted, or analyzed. Receiving agencies are cautioned not to take actions based solely on this raw reporting unless the information is independently verified. A presumption of innocence still exists for any person being reported on in this report.

(U) Administrative Note: This product reflects the views of the Phoenix Field Office and has not been vetted by FBI Headquarters.

[1] Hacktivism is a broadly used term referring to activists who use computers and computer networks as a means of protest and/or to promote political agendas.

- 2:00 PM – 4:00 PM, 4 November 2011: Toxic Tour of Dudley Square. Participants will be meeting at Alternatives for Community and Environment (ACE) at 2181 Washington St. Suite 301 Roxbury. ACE is giving the tour that is scheduled to take place in and around Dudley Square to show "environmental injustices and stories of residents organizing for safer, healthier, and greener communities". (Occupy Boston).
  Analyst Notes: The event information page on OB's calendar notes that this event is limited to 25 people and they must sign up.
- 5:00 PM – 6:00 PM, 4 November 2011: Musical concert: "Quill" occurring at the "main stage" at Dewey Sq. (Occupy Boston)

Events Scheduled for Saturday, 5 November 2011 [viii]

- 10:30 AM, 5 November 2011: Move Your Money, Meeting and March. Occupy Boston will convene at Dewey Square to make a route and march to Bank of America and possibly other banks. (Occupy Boston).
- 11:00 AM, 5 November 2011: MoveOn.org Foreclose on BOA. Move Your Money, a Make Wall Street Pay Action: MoveOn.org they are requesting a permit for this event that will consist of a march from the Bank of America building at 161 Cambridge St. through the Financial District and then back to Dewey Square (exact route is enclosed in email that was sent). 100 participants are expected at this event according to MoveOn.org.
  Analyst Notes: This event has not been specifically listed on the Occupy Boston calendar; however, the OB calendar does list an event titled "Move Your Money / Bank Transfer Day" for 5 November, which provides links to a similar nationwide movement. [ix] It is possible that Occupy Boston will participate in the 5 November MoveOn.org march and rallies despite it not being listed on OB's calendar at this time; the march is ending at Dewey Square and MoveOn.org states on their website this march is in solidarity with OB. It should also be noted that 5 November 2011 is "Guy Fawkes Day", the anniversary of Fawkes' attempt to destroy the British Parliament with explosives in 1605. [x] Fawkes' likeness has been replicated in plastic masks which are frequently worn by members of the "hactivist" group Anonymous and have been seen at past OB events and marches. It should also be noted that Anonymous has stated its intention to dismantle the Fox News website on 5 November in response to the network's supposed opposition to the Occupy Wall Street protests. [xi] At this time it is unknown if OB and / or Anonymous will participate in the above event.

Occupy Phoenix just updated their page saying that they will be marching to Wells Fargo, B of A, and Chase Tower. They are supposed to do a " credit card shredding ceremony", but eh haven't identified which bank they will be doing that at. We will have to monitor their FB.

Given last night's events in Oakland, the Occupy Phoenix FB page has INDIVIDUALS calling for stronger action and opposition to law enforcement. While it appears the "official" message of Occupy Phoenix organizers is to remain peaceful, I think we should be mindful of the comments of a vast number of individuals that are calling on others to take a stronger action against the PD.

While confident we are already taking steps to ensure our safety, I would definitely caution our patrol resources that helping cover to at least work in two person teams to be on the safe side.

Goldman Sachs protest in Scottsdale

Good Morning All,
Occupy Phoenix is "loosely" discussing protesting Goldman Sachs Bank in Scottsdale in solidarity with the Occupy Wall Street movement which is planning demonstrations to block all ports from Anchorage to San Diego. They believe by doing so it will cut into profits they blame for contributing to the financial crisis.

Occupy Phoenix is only in the discussion stages by "the night group" and trying to drum up support for late afternoon.

I will keep you updated if I discover anything further. I just wanted to put it on your radar.

7 December 2011

Bulletin #:11-12-70 | Authority: K. Toruno | Phone: 407-858-3906

Occupy Wall Street Movement - Public Health/Fire Hazard Safety Concerns

Occupy protestors throughout the Central Florida region are continuing with mass gatherings by setting up camp locations in city parks to conduct local demonstrations of the Occupy movement. Nationwide, encampments have posed a public health/safety risk of disease outbreaks, illnesses and fire hazard concerns for law enforcement, first responders, and public health officials. In several cases throughout the United States, public health and fire safety issues have been addressed due to demonstrators camping together for consecutive days without access to basic facilities or utilities.

PUBLIC HEALTH CONCERNS

Los Angeles, CA - On November 30, 2011, Los Angeles protestors in the Occupy Wall Street movement were forced to discontinue their protest in front of City Hall due to public health concerns. Law enforcement had to wear protective biohazard suits (pictured right) as they cleared the 2 ½ - month-old tent city that was set up by protestors because of the numerous reports of illnesses. A total of 292 protestors were arrested for refusing to leave the contaminated area.

The demonstrators and their compatriots camped in rain and heat with old food, trash, feces, urine and hypodermic needles causing germs to rapidly spread throughout their immune systems. Cases of staph infections and lice were reported, causing officials to take action by shutting them down.

Atlanta, GA – The Fulton County Health Department reported 2 cases of tuberculosis where protestors from Occupy Atlanta were cohabiting with residents of a homeless shelter. There was concern of mass contamination since tuberculosis is contracted through the air.

Situational Awareness Brief
7 December 2011

Bulletin #:11-12-70 | Authority: K. Toruno | Phone: 407-858-3906

Occupy Wall Street Movement - Public Health/Fire Hazard Safety Concerns

In addition to public health issues, fire hazards are an increasing concern as the Occupy encampment continues and temperatures begin to drop. Fire departments across the nation are attempting to educate protesters on the hazards associated with building wood-burning fire pits and propane heaters while using hay as insulation.

Warming Hut – Occupy Philly

FIRE HAZARD CONCERNS

Philadelphia, PA – Fire officials and a Hazmat team removed a potentially dangerous propane tank from a wooden structure labeled as a "warming station" (pictured right) that was set up by protesters at the "Occupy Philadelphia" encampment. It contained a propane-fired heater that was continuously running inside to keep members warm.

Augusta, ME – On December 5, 2011, the State Fire Marshal's Office (Maine) reported that an 8X12 tent set up for the encampment of "Occupy Augusta" was intentionally set on fire and destroyed while the members were protesting. Officials were concerned since the fire could have spread to the occupied tents, causing a mass casualty response.

Analyst Comments: According to social media outlets, the Occupy protesters throughout the Central Florida region plan to continue with demonstrations and mass gatherings. As these encampments at local parks are prolonged, public health officials and hospitals may potentially see an increase in cases of disease outbreaks and/or illnesses related to these events. Law enforcement and first responders should consider wearing protective suits when responding or evacuating a mass gathering/encampment location.

(U) BLUF (Bottom Line Up Front). Passing FYI and SA:

- 'Occupy New Orleans' group (offshoot of Wall St Protests) plans to march/protest at noon on Thursday 6 Oct 2011 meeting at Tulane Ave and South Broad in downtown New Orleans, LA.
- This New Orleans event was inspired by the "Day of Rage" protests that started on 17 Sep 2011 on NYC's Wall Street and continues at this writing.

(U//FOUO) THREAT STATUS. Threat picture remains unchanged for Louisiana AOR. No known credible threat or concern to TSA missions, resources, capabilities, personnel at this time in the Louisiana AOR.

(U) DETAILS.

- The Occupy New Orleans event is the latest round in a series of protesters venting frustrations with the nation's financial industry.
- Over 700 protesters have been arrested on wall Street to date.
- NYC "Day of Rage" organizers encourage protests across the nation.
- These "anti-corporation" protesters consider themselves to be victims of corporate greed, economic oppression and perceived injustices, vocalizing that their ideologies, rights and liberties are threatened.
- 'Occupy New Orleans' announced on Monday that it is planning to march on the streets Thursday 6 Oct 2011 and is promoting the protest on Facebook, which has about 3,000 followers.
- Of note, the New Orleans Criminal Court is located on the corner of Tulane Ave and South Broad and

Center for Media and Democracy

(U) PURPOSE. Passing this FYSA and for informational purposes. Threat picture remains unchanged for Louisiana AOR.

(U) BLUF. Bottom Line Up Front.
Activists from the Hacker Collective Anonymous are advertising and assembling a "Day of Rage" protest on 17 Sep 2011 on social network sites such as Facebook and Twitter for the "occupation" of NYC's Wall Street and encourages protests across the nation.

(U) BACKGROUND

- The US Constitution was formally adopted on September 17, 1887 (Sept 17, 2011 being the 224th anniversary).
- There were "Days of Rage" demonstrations in Chicago over the course of several days in October 1969 organized by the Weatherman faction of disgruntled students angered by war and racism.
- Former day of Rage protests were the triggers behind the overthrow of the Egyptian and Libyan governments

(U) TAKEAWAY. What does it mean to us? This event might incite or influence violence in other US cities. Although there is no evidence that it is part of a coordinated plan extending throughout the region or in our Louisiana AOR, the potential always exists for extremists to exploit this Day of Rage to trigger their own agendas.

(U) RECOMMENDED WAY AHEAD COAs. Increased awareness and vigilance remain key.

Location: New York, New York
In a video posted on YouTube after Occupy Wall Street (OWS) protesters were evicted from Zuccotti Park in New York City, demonstrators have threatened to "burn New York City to the ground" on Thursday, 17 November.

Later in the video, in an apparent threat to businesses in the city, one demonstrator goes on to say, "In a few days, you're going to see what a Molotov cocktail can do to a Macy's."

Meanwhile, the official OWS movement has reiterated its call for only nonviolent action during its marches and rallies planned for the same day to mark its two-month anniversary.

Subject: Occupy Miami Jose Marti Park Protest

The article below is indicating that approximately 2,000 people will be participating. This information has not been vetted. Social networks and blogs being monitored are indicating an approximate number of 300 participants at this time. Due to the inconsistent attendance in previous protests, it is unknown how many people will be participating.

Also, social networks have posted a new event for today, prior to the protest taking place at Jose Marti Park. Occupy Miami will be hosting a #N17 Mock Trial March, beginning at the Government Center at 2:00pm. It is unclear how the march will take place, due to different postings by the Occupy Miami members. Some are saying they will be marching from the Government Center to Brickell and then to the Jose Marti Park location. Some postings are saying they will begin at the Jose Marti Park location and will be marching toward Brickell. Different times have also been posted on multiple websites.

HSB detectives will be monitoring the event.

Additional information will be disseminated as it becomes available.

Occupy Miami to march in Little Havana, Brickell Thursday afternoon

Miami Herald Staff Report

Occupy Miami protesters, camped out at Miami-Dade's County Hall, will be on the move Thursday afternoon with a march in Little Havana and in the Brickell Avenue banking district.

Occupy Miami, along with 1Miami and Stand Up Florida, will gather at José Martí Park beginning at 4 p.m. for the march toward Brickell. The group plans to head east on Calle Ocho to Brickell Park by 5 p.m.

Musicians LaGuardia Cross will joining the "Stand Up" rally and perform We are the 99% - HipRock Anthem.

The Miami protest is one of many mass gatherings and disruptions planned across the country Thursday.

The day of action had been planned before New York cracked down on the encampment in Zuccotti Park in lower Manhattan, but took on added importance to the protesters after tents, tarps and sleeping bags were cleared out early Tuesday and the granite plaza was cleaned for the first time since the group arrived more than two months ago.

"We will get boots on the ground again," said Rory Simpson, 29, who described himself as an itinerant activist as he made signs Wednesday evening. "This is not over yet."

Miami organizers expect 2,000 people to participate.

"Public desperation and dissatisfaction is growing with large financial institutions and their political cronies, so it's no surprise that our protests are gaining support," Jose Suarez, spokesman for 1Miami, said in a statement.

Leah,
Would you please see if this is information any of you need? We just entered it as a phone log on this end - basically an info only log. Don't know why he called PSB...
I hope you are well!
Linda

On 10/28/11, Mr. Ezra Kaplan contacted PSB to inform an investigator that he is with the Occupy Phoenix Movement organization and he recently viewed a memo on the internet concerning a pamphlet located by the Maricopa County Sheriff's Office (MCSO) or Phoenix PD at the recent "Occupy Phoenix" event. The pamphlet Mr. Kaplan was referring to was described as an advertisement encouraging individuals to kill officers.
Mr. Kaplan ensured investigator that the pamphlet did not represent the Occupy Phoenix Movement's opinions and was not placed at the event by anyone involved with Occupy Phoenix. Mr. Kaplan stated that his organization had checked with everyone involved and according to Mr. Kaplan even the most outspoken extremists did not create the pamphlet. Mr. Kaplan said that if they had, they would own up to it. Mr. Kaplan told investigator he did not know where the pamphlet came from and would send investigator the website where he found the memo he was referring to.
Mr. Kaplan sent investigator the following link via e-mail: [redacted]
When investigator clicked on the above link, an Arizona Counter-Terrorism Information Center (ACTIC) intelligence bulletin came up on the computer screen. The bulletin was an officer safety advisement to inform officers of what was included in a document that was located at the "Occupy Phoenix" event at Cesar Chavez Park.
According to the bulletin, MCSO took disposition of the pamphlets/documents and forwarded the information to ACTIC.
This was created as a phone log only.

The attached is a compilation of information received from RFIs, research, and info from other jurisdictions. It looks like from the Facebook pages that many of the more aggressive folks here are "studying" the protests from Libya, New York, LA, Boston, & Chicago. Some have gone as far as traveled to physically participate and bring back their experience.

The September-October "Occupy" demonstrations nationwide have generated approximately 27,000 participants, and led to more then 1,000 arrests. The protests have mostly been "leaderless," although various "general assemblies" of organizers or group representatives have gotten together to plan activities. Several cities have noted "anarchists" trying to take control of the events; however, most of these have been rejected by participants. Although the protesters often set up base camps with tents in centralized areas, many of the events involve marches from downtown or state capitol areas to financial areas, Federal reserve/ bank buildings. The vast majority of the participants have been peaceful, cooperative and law abiding.

Of the arrests, most have occurred in large cities: New York City (830+); Boston, MA (130); Seattle, WA (27). Most of the arrests have been for trespassing, disorderly or interfering with park employees. There has only been one assault on a law enforcement officer, and one incident of several protesters being sprayed with OC after attempting to rush past security at the National Air & Space Museum in Washington DC.

Update: A total of 5 arrests have been made. Pepper spray used for a second time when a group of anarchists charged the police line trying to enter Kierland.

No tear gas was deployed. Only pepper spray was used. Those sprayed were decontaminated (eyes/face flushed out) with water by Fire which is common practice.

The Governor has arrived without incident. I will update you on any changes.

The American Legislative Exchange Council (ALEC) conference at Westin-Kierland is being held today. Anarchists and Occupy Phoenix protestors arrived and blocked a roadway/entrance. The anarchists refused to move when told to by police. Some anarchists assaulted police with nail filled sticks. This caused officers to use pepper spray on the group of about 20 in order to obtain control. 4 anarchists arrested so far. Further information to follow.

Good that you'll be at the meeting. Were you able to reach Phil Black @ the Westin to get an idea of their security plan, and the resources he'll be using inside & outside the resort? Does anyone (like ACTIC) currently have an agenda for ALEC so we have a better idea how to plan and use our resources?

Larry,
I will now be at the Wednesday, November 23rd meeting regarding the Westin event. Please convey to your people that flexibility will be the key to this event. I may need them to provide high visibility patrols in cars and on bikes as well. I will have a better idea as we get closer to the meeting on the 23rd and based on intelligence that has been gathered. It could be a long day so your idea of staggering two squads to later hours is probably a good idea. I would thing that 0930-1930 would probably be optimal so that way they could be on scene at the Westin by no later than 1000. Let me know if this works for you. Call me at [redacted] if you have any questions. I will have a much better idea of resources and how I will deploy them once we have the Nov. 23rd meeting.

I wanted to tell each of you and your squads thank you very much for the fine job that everyone did at the ALEC conference. The teamwork and coordination displayed was second to none and you and your detectives/officers did a tremendous job of maintaining your professionalism throughout the 3 days we were there. Regardless of what unit/bureau you represented, everyone stepped up to whatever assignment was required and rose to any challenges that were presented. Due to the number of resources that responded, I was not able to thank each squad individually but I wanted to do it now and express my appreciation for a job well done. Your efforts do not go unnoticed and please pass on my thanks to all of your officers/detectives. I have also included an e-mail I received from a State Representative from Kansas thanking everyone for their good work.

Thank you,

The American Legislative Exchange Council (ALEC) is planning to meet at the Westin Kierland Report and Spa in Scottsdale, AZ (just outside Phoenix) for their annual State and National Policy Summit from November 30-December 2 2011. The Joint Board of Directors will meeting for a dinner and reception on the 29th. Approximately 600-700 people are expected at the conference. Governor Jan Brewer is expected on November 30th at the luncheon.

The ACTIC has identified groups that intend "Shut ALEC Down." While some may merely protest the event, such as Anti-SB1070 and the Occupy Phoenix movement, anarchist groups have shown a determination to disrupt and shut down the event with the use of violent tactics experienced by other states hosting these meetings. The Phoenix Police Department is taking the lead to identify and intercept persons they believe to pose a threat to the event or attendees.

The American Legislative Exchange Council (ALEC) is planning on meeting in Scottsdale for their annual State and National Policy Summit from November 30-December 2 2011. Occupy Phoenix is planning on protesting the summit, however there are reports that the Anarchist groups are adamant about shutting this event down as they have tried to do in other summits.

Yes this is connected to the Occupy Phx / Day of Rage protest next week on the 14th and 15th. For intel purposes, I would like to obtain a few copies of any of flyers handed out tonight at FF reference the protests next week.

Also ref the protests next week. On Friday the 14th I will need 42X and 46x available in a TRU capacity for a march in the downtown. You need to be ready to go with your TRU gear by 1430. The route is short. Its is from Civic Space Park (big flying art work park) to Chavez Plaza (next to City Hall). Due to lack of leadership of protest groups and lack of direct human communication with CRB, the numbers are unknown. However it is a pre-event for the protest on the next day. Everything is being organized via social media. There is also a Free Syria demonstration at the Chavez Plaza on Friday the 14th. I will discuss more with you both in person.

Chas,
I just learned that Lt. Viner will not be in tonight. Lt. Lasavic in 700 will have zone should you need him fo FF.

Ref Saturday the 15th, 41X, 42X, 43X, 44X, 46X (with 45X officers added) will all need to be prepared to work in a TRU or Bike capacity, starting our shift at 8am. This protest/march/sit-in will begin at the Chavez Plaza and go to the State Capital. I will provide more details next week.

Chas, Jesse, Jeff, Tim and Chris plz send me the names and serial numbers of who you will have on your teams for these days.

Good afternoon everyone. Wanted to put this on everyone's radar regarding another "Occupy Wall Street " type movement which has surfaced over the last days. It is called "Shut Down the Corporations" and is expected to call upon the same players as we have seen over the last few months in downtown Phoenix. Speaking with PPD counterparts, they do not expect large gatherings and all demonstrations are expected to be peaceful. I will have Steve Sager and Mike Duran monitor as needed throughout the day. No FD resources are being requested by PPD or AZ DPS at the State Capitol at this moment. This is just an SA update. please call me if you have any questions.

I will make sure to pass along any information as it comes through. The PPD Downtown Ops Unit along with two precincts are working on a contingency staffing/tactical plan as a precaution.

Thank you.

AZ Stand Against ALEC— Shut Down the Corporations
On February 29, 2012

Occupy Portland is calling for a National Day of Action against member corporations who make up the American Legislative Exchange Council (ALEC). Occupy Phoenix is garnering support for a local protest in Phoenix. As with all Occupy-related demonstrations, it is difficult to predict what the demonstration group plans to do.

This national event is being advertised as "a national day of non-violent direct action to reclaim our voices and challenge our society's obsession with profit and greed," and has been well publicized throughout online Occupy forums and affiliated websites. Those that cannot attend scheduled events are being encouraged to occupy corporations and businesses on their own.

Agenda:

- Noon: Rally and Press conference at the Arizona State Capital
- 03:00: Meeting at Cesar Chavez Plaza and march to Freeport McMoran where demonstrations will take place [redacted]
- 0500: Leave Freeport McMoran to "other ALEC controlled corporations"

Attendance could range from 20 to 150 demonstrators. The group plans to have giant puppets and piñatas as part of their demonstration.

There may be mild traffic interruptions but no significant disruptions are expected. Keep in mind this information is subject to change. Additional informational may become available on the day of the event. The information provided is based primarily on open source information, and previous demonstrations.

Occupy Vest

The Occupy Vest is being sold on eBay through distributor world-domination-club for $299.00. This vest is advertised as being Taser proof, rubber/beanbag bullet resistant, tear proof, and provides tackle cushion protection for the upper body. This vest is being marketed to participants in the Occupy Protest as a "piece of protective clothing for those wanting to be safe and protected while exercising their right of free speech." [redacted]

The vest uses cartridges to inflate the vest. The user lifts up the flaps to inflate. From a distance, the vest could appear to be an officer safety issue.

Subject: ALEC - Shut Down the Corporations Update

Good Morning,
This is an update from the message I sent out last week. It appears that Occupy Portland is calling for a National Day of Action on activist across the country to engage in a "non-violent" protest against ALEC member corporations on Wed., Feb. 29, 2012. They are urging each city to organize their own protest against these member corporations in the way of "sit-ins, strikes, blockades, boycotts, banner drops, culture jamming, and performance among many others." According to their website, Occupy Phoenix is already in the planning stages to support this call to action, though there are no specific targets indicated.

Though not an exhaustive list, member corporations include: Wal-Mart, Coca-Cola, AT&T, Bayer Corp, Energy Future Holdings, Kraft, Peabody Energy, UPS, State Farm Insurance, SRP (listed on SourceWatch), ExxonMobil, CenterPoint 360, Intuit, Johnson & Johnson, and American Bail Coalition.

Please forward any information you may obtain. I will be working with DPS to provide updates as well.

The verbage from the Facebook page regarding todays protests does not give addresses with the following post:

5pm: March from Freeport-McMoran (Van Buren and 1st St.) on a "scenic tour" of all the other ALEC corportations downtown, including CenturyLink, FedEx, and, one of the worst, Bank of America. Send them a message that we won't stand for the corporate takeover of our democracy any longer!

After researching a bit, the Central Production Center for Fed Ex is inside the Bank of America tower at Collier Center (201 East Washington). There is also a FedEx inside the Sheraton at 340 North 3rd Street.

Im not aware of a CenturyLink downtown. If anyone is, please forward.

I just found information that the Occupy Phoenix group plans to carry out an operation in Mesa on 11/17/11. According to open source reporting, the group will rally at the Sycamore and Main Light Rail Station at 0700 and try to "occupy" the light rail cars. Mesa is one of three identified sites they want protestors to meet and load onto the rail cars. The protestors plan to ride the light rail cars until the morning rush hour crowds taper off. They will then proceed into Phoenix for a "flash mob" rally at noon.

I am still gathering information on this, and will let you know when I have more.

Hi Ken,
We are working on a protest "Shut ALEC Down!". The American Legislative Exchange Council (ALEC) is planning on meeting in Scottsdale for their annual State and National Policy Summit from November 30-December 2 2011. Occupy Phoenix is planning on protesting the summit, however there are reports that the Anarchist groups are adamant about shutting this event down as they have tried to do in other summits.

Can you please tell me if you have seen them on your radar?

For those of you with federal courthouses in your jurisdictions – The Move to Amend Group plans to "occupy the courts" on January 20, 2012. See below for more information.

January 20, 2012: Move to Amend Occupies the Courts!

Inspired by our friends at Occupy Wall Street, and Dr. Cornel West, Move To Amend is planning bold action to mark the second anniversary of the infamous Citizens United v. FEC decision!

Occupy the Courts will be a one day occupation of Federal courthouses across the country, including the U.S. Supreme Court in Washington, D.C., on Friday January 20, 2012.

Move to Amend volunteers across the USA will lead the charge on the judiciary which created — and continues to expand — corporate personhood rights.

Americans across the country are on the march, and they are marching OUR way. They carry signs that say, "Corporations are NOT people! Money is NOT Speech!" And they are chanting those truths at the top of their lungs! The time has come to make these truths evident to the courts.

Join us Friday, January 20, 2012 at a Federal Court building near you!

We the People, Not We the Corporations

On January 21, 2010, with its ruling in Citizens United v. Federal Election Commission, the Supreme Court ruled that corporations are persons, entitled by the U.S. Constitution to buy elections and run our government. Human beings are people; corporations are legal fictions.

We, the People of the United States of America, reject the U.S. Supreme Court's ruling in Citizens United, and move to amend our Constitution to:

* Firmly establish that money is not speech, and that human beings, not corporations, are persons entitled to constitutional rights.
* Guarantee the right to vote and to participate, and to have our vote and participation count.
* Protect local communities, their economies, and democracies against illegitimate "preemption" actions by global, national, and state governments.

The Supreme Court is misguided in principle, and wrong on the law. In a democracy, the people rule. We Move to Amend.

Lt,
I wanted to send you what I have so far. There is a TLO meeting this morning, then we will be discussing the ALEC conference coming to Phoenix. With computer issues I didn't have an opportunity to add that Occupy is holding a training on Sun, Nov. 19th from 1400 hrs to 1700 hrs for a ALEC Awareness Workshop. More information to come. I am also working on a national report for you.

Also, we need to discuss issues regarding web-searching many of these social media sites and whether or not I should be doing it on a "clean" computer. I am looking at options, but wanted you to be aware. If I had a laptop (circle discussion), I would be able to add an anonymizer, but my understanding is that I cannot for DPS or PHX.

UPDATE

Center for Media and Democracy DBA Press

We have picked up some more details on the Feb. 29 ALEC protests. Right now it appears they are focused on Downtown Phoenix and specially Freeport-McMoRan. There are no specific mentions of protests at SRP on that day. However, they are encouraging occupiers to plan their own rallies at other ALEC corporations, so we could still a target. Here are the latest updates:

> JOIN OPHX's EVENTS on FEB 29
> 3pm: Meet at César Chávez Plaza (201 W Washington St, Phx) and march down the street to Freeport McMoRan, one of ALEC dirtiest member corporations for street theater and a sidewalk rally.
> 5pm: March from Freeport to other ALEC corporations downtown. Send them a message that we won't stand for the corporate takeover of our democracy any longer! ...
> AND/OR, plan your own event, rally, or action for Feb. 29! (From Occupy Phoenix Event Calendar)
> "A proposal was passed with 100% consensus to hold a press conference 12pm at the Capitol on Feb 29th for #F29 informing people about what ALEC is and why they are bad!" (From Occupy Phoenix Facebook Page)

Good morning,

As with all Occupy related demonstrations, it is difficult to predict what the demonstration group plans to do. Based on open source information and previous demonstrations I can give you an overview what to expect in reference to your questions.

Their protest route is unknown. They plan on assembling at Chavez Plaza at 1500 and marching to Freeport. Departure time is unknown but they plan on demonstrating in front of Freeport until 1700. At 1700 they plan on marching around downtown to various ALEC related businesses.

Center for Media and Democracy DBA Press

Attendance could range from 20 to 150 demonstrators. The group plans to have giant puppets and piñatas as part of their demonstration.

There may be mild traffic interruptions but nothing significantly disruptive. Keep in mind this information is subject to change.

I should have a better idea of the turn out by noon on that day.

Call me with questions,

National Day of Action – Shut Down ALEC #F29
Date: Wed., February 29, 1800 hrs to 2100 hrs (time could change)
Location: "Downtown Phoenix" – No specification yet
Event Details: Occupy Phoenix invites all Arizonans to speak out on F29, a national day of action against the member corporations who make up the American Legislative Exchange Council. ALEC writes "model" bills and then wines and dines state legislators all across the country in order t...o circumvent the democratic process and push their own agendas. They create legislation to maximize their own profit at the expense of democracy, the environment, and the real people who their laws affect.

SB 1070 - An ALEC-written bill that's now been copy-catted around the country.

On February 29th, we will join dozens of other US cities to reclaim our future from the 1%. We will shut down ALEC corporations, expose their attempts to buy off our politicians, and recreate our democracy.

ALEC members benefit from this partnership of business leaders, policy experts, and legislators through networking, conferences, Task Force meetings, and Issue Briefings.

ALEC might need to be aware that people are actually thinking about this as an option to get on the inside.

Subject: Attny Client -Upcoming Black Trade Workers Union event with Occupy Phx Dec 4th

All,
Public Works has the request for a reservation for Cesar Chavez plaza for Dec 4, from the Black Trade Workers Union and the NAACP. they want to join the Occupy Protestors for the day to show their support. There doesn't appear to be a reason that Public Works would refuse the reservation. It doesnt appear the event will be of a nature or duration that will require electrical power or the need for port-a-johns so these will not be required or provided.

They state 200 of them will march from their conference to the CCPlaza that day.

Lt. Coley, please have your team update you on the conference and the march so we can determine what our plan is for this event. Please confirm for me that we are in contact with the trade workers union representatives. Mr. Scott Sumners of Public Works is in possession of the reservation request should you need to review it. We need to communicate with Mr. Sumners so that he knows what the plan is for that day so that he can communicate with the requestors in support of our efforts to safely manage the event.

Mr. Zuercher has inquired as to our assessment and plan for the event so please advise as soon as you have info. thanks.

Subject: FW: Occupy protest 12/17

Good Morning Alan,
Tracking the activities of Occupy Phoenix is one of my daily responsiblities. My primary role is to look at the social media, websites, and blogs. I just wanted to put it out there so that if you would like me to share with you or you have something to share, we can collaborate.

We are also concerned with elevated numbers tomorrow in light of Occupy the Holidays, Senator McCain protest (No Indefinite Detention Rally), and the Occupy Wall Street three month anniversary. The November 18th camping demonstration at Chavez Plaza was to commemorate the 2 month anniversary of Occupy Wall Street. As you mentioned, Occupy Phoenix has continued a solidarity movement with them. Occupy Phoenix is posting that Occupy Wall Street "will be huge!".

I will continue to monitor online activities to get an idea of what kind of participation we can expect. Please feel free to contact me with any questions you have. (FYI - I sit right in front of Annette Roberts).

Thank you,

Hey, you guys plugged into this? I was considering an intel report for merely raising awareness, especially in light of the ALEC/SRP stuff a few weeks back but if you have it covered from an intel alert/bulletin stand point, we'd back off:

Phoenix - Occupy Phoenix protesters organizing a rally at John McCain's office on December 17th.
Description:
Occupy Phoenix, a group acting in solidarity with the Occupy Wall Street protests in New York, continues to actively participate in nationwide days of action throughout Phoenix.

Phoenix protesters will participate in the "No Indefinite Detention Rally," scheduled for Saturday, December 17th. The group is scheduled to convene at Senator John McCain's office, located in the vicinity of E Camelback Rd and N 22nd St, at 10:00 am. The rally is an effort to voice opposition to Senate Bill 1867, which would permit the American military to arrest anyone, including an American citizen, anywhere, including in the United States, upon suspicion that the person involved is a "terrorist," a term of uncertain definition, and then hold such a person without trial, without a lawyer, without due process, and without end.

Members of the group have expressed their intentions to continue with the protest indefinitely. Future marches and rallies should be expected.

There are plans today for Occupy Phoenix and fringe groups to "Rally Against the NDAA" when the POTUS arrives today in Chandler. They have a scheduled time of 0800 hrs to 1200 hrs, however they are trying to coordinate with the arrival of the POTUS.

At this point, the rally is loosely organized, but there is support. Comments regarding the POTUS State of the Union Address varies from complete support to lambasting the POTUS.

Rally Against NDAA (The President's arrival in "Phoenix" today)
Date: Wed., January 25, 0800 hrs to 1200 hrs
Location: TBA
Event Details: Following his State of the Union Address President Obama will be visiting Arizona on Jan. 25th, 2012. Join us as we rally to show the President that we, the people of Arizona, oppose his decision to sign and pass the National Defense Authorization Act.
Time and location will be updated it becomes available.

OFFICER SAFETY
Document Found at Occupy Event
"When Should You Shoot A Cop?"

Posted on the Occupy Phoenix Facebook site, this photo had the caption: "Back at Cesar Chavez Plaza.....currently being occupied by the police? They are the 99% too.

Copies of an "informational" letter were left on a table for protestors pick up and read during the "Occupy Phoenix" event at Cesar Chavez Park. The presence of the letter was reported to the ACTIC by a Maricopa County Sheriff's Deputy who had responded to an un-related call and was alerted to it by another deputy working the event.

This letter is blatantly anti-government and anti-law enforcement in nature. It not only condones but even encourages citizens to kill any "government agent" (i.e. law enforcement officer), who in their perception violates their rights. Examples are given in the document, of "illegal" search and seizure, sobriety and border checkpoints, airport security, etc… In essence this document states that citizens have the right and moral obligation to resist any action by law enforcement that is viewed as a violation of the citizen's rights, and often-times resistance involves killing officers.

"Occupy" events have drawn protestors for various causes including "Chalk the Police" and "Police Brutality Day". With emotions high in regards to law enforcement and government personnel, there is obvious concern this document could incite actions with protestors to take actions they might not have taken otherwise.

If you have seen similar literature or have any information regarding this issue, please contact ACTIC Intelligence Unit at: (602) 644-5805 / 5842 / 5927, or send an email to: intelligence@azdps.gov.

ACTIC COMMENT: There have been no specific or credible threats against law enforcement agencies, officers or public officials, and no arrests have been made. This situation is currently under investigation.

DSAC Liaison Information Report (LIR)

DSAC LIRs are issued to convey timely, actionable information that has undergone some vetting, but is not a completely refined product. DSAC LIRs are prepared by FBI and DHS and are intended for corporate security officers.

(U) The purpose of this DSAC LIR is to raise awareness concerning this type of criminal activity. Recipients should immediately report any suspicious or criminal activities potentially related to these events to their local FBI field or law enforcement office.

9 December 2011

(U) Protesters Plan to Shut Down Ports on West Coast

(U) Occupy Wall Street (OWS) groups are advocating a collaborative effort to shutdown major ports on the west coast on 12 December 2011. Occupy groups that plan to participate in the coordinated shutdown include OWS groups located in Los Angeles, San Diego, Houston, Portland, Tacoma, Seattle, Oakland, and Vancouver. According to an OWS spokesperson, smaller cities plan to direct their supporters to these ports. The potential impacts of the port shutdowns include transit delays, blocked roads, commercial disruptions, and possible violence.

(U) In November 2011, the Occupy Wall Street (OWS) Movement targeted the ports in Oakland. During this protest, it was reported that thousands of Occupy supporters gathered at the Port of Oakland disrupting evening operations at the port. Protesters used metal chains and human body chains in an attempt to prevent longshoremen and truckers from entering and exiting the port. A few incidents of violence were reported by the Oakland Police Department; however, reported violence was not between the protestors and the drivers or longshoremen. Despite their large numbers, protestors were only able to partially shut down the port by delaying the arrival and/or departure of a handful of ships.

(U//FOUO) The Port of Anchorage has determined the following: The International Longshore Workers Union and the Anchorage Independent Longshore Union have advised the OWS Movement that they will not support any disruption to the Port. According to information on the OWS Movement website, the plan is to meet for a lunch time BBQ on 12 December 2011 and then march at 1300 from around 6th and C heading to the Port. Representatives of the OWS Movement have stated that they want a peaceful protest of the Port. Additionally, representatives of the Port of Anchorage stated there is no pedestrian access to the Port and sidewalk access ends just after the A Street Bridge.

(U) Handling Notice: Recipients are reminded that DSAC LIRs contain sensitive information meant for use primarily within the corporate security community. Such messages shall not be released in either written or oral form to the media, the general public, or other personnel who do not have a valid need-to-know without prior approval from an authorized FBI official.

Comments and queries may be addressed to DSAC at dsac@ic.fbi.gov.

Center for Media and Democracy
D3A Press

The Anchorage Police Department (APD) added that there will be no uniformed APD presence unless the situation escalates.

(U//FOUO) In regards to the 12 December 2011 planned protest, the Naval Criminal Investigative Service (NCIS) has stated that the actions of the OWS Movement may or may not be coordinated with organized labor actions at the affected ports and presently, there are no indications that protesters plan to use violence against people entering or leaving ports, but advise personnel reporting for duty there to remain alert to the possibility of civil disturbances that might lead to conflict between protesters and law enforcement, and to avoid becoming involved in such conflicts.

(U//FOUO) U.S. Immigrations and Customs Enforcement (ICE) has responded to the pending port shutdowns in their areas of responsibilities as follows: ICE San Diego is coordinating with U.S. Customs and Border Protection (CBP). They do not plan to assist with any law enforcement operations unless requested. ICE Seattle is in contact with the U.S. Coast Guard and has a Port of Seattle police officer assigned to the Border Enforcement Security Task Force (BEST) in Seattle. They will continue to monitor the situation but do not have an active role at this time.

(U//FOUO) ICE San Francisco has undertaken the following proactive measures: They are coordinating with CBP and the U.S. Coast Guard to ensure security, safety and the continuity of operations. They are also partnering with local law enforcement agencies. It is important to note that local law enforcement agencies have limited cooperation with ICE/ Homeland Security Investigations (HSI) due to sanctuary policies enacted by local governments. Finally, ICE San Francisco will ensure that the San Francisco (BEST) and all local agents are alerted to the possibility of a shutdown. Assistance from the Department of Homeland Security (DHS) is available if requested.

(U//FOUO) Basic security for the Port of Oakland remains the responsibility of local law enforcement agencies and not ICE/HSI; however, ICE/HSI is prepared to respond and offer assistance to local law enforcement, consistent with their training and authorities.

(U) Tips for reducing vulnerability in the event of civil unrest.[1]

(U) Civil unrest can range in form from small, organized rallies to large-scale demonstrations and rioting. People may be harmed by being in the wrong place at the wrong time. Following are suggested safety tips.

- Avoid all large gatherings related to civil issues. Even seemingly peaceful rallies can spur violent activity or be met with resistance by security forces. Bystanders may be arrested or harmed by security forces using water cannons, tear gas or other measures to control crowds.
- Maintain a low profile by avoiding demonstration areas and discussions of the issues at hand, and by dressing conservatively.
- If violence erupts or is imminent, leave the area as quickly as possible. If you cannot leave the area, seek shelter in large, public buildings such as hotels,

(U) Handling Notice: Recipients are reminded that DSAC LIRs contain sensitive information meant for use primarily within the corporate security community. Such messages shall not be released in either written or oral form to the media, the general public, or other personnel who do not have a valid need-to-know without prior approval from an authorized FBI official.

churches, hospitals and museums. Wait until the crowds have dissipated before going back outside.

- If you know of an event ahead of time, plan pedestrian and vehicular routes that avoid the affected areas. Road closures and traffic delays are possible. Give yourself extra time to travel.
- If curfews are imposed, strictly observe regulations and monitor the media for immediate updates to the situation.
- Severe civil unrest can significantly disrupt businesses, industries and services. If you must travel during unrest ensure that hotels and businesses will be open, services will be available and transportation will be running. Confirm all meetings and reservations.

Basic security for the Port of Oakland remains the responsibility of local law enforcement agencies and not ICE/HSI. However, the SAC San Francisco is prepared to respond and offer assistance to local law enforcement consistent with our training and authorities

(U) DSAC members with further information regarding this or similar incidents should contact their local field office or the DSAC Program Office at dsac@ic.fbi.gov.

SAFETY PLAN

OCCUPY PHOENIX EVENT
October 15, 2011

Policy:

This plan provides for the safety of Public Safety personnel during the rally and potential march associated with the Occupy Phoenix Event on October 15, 2011 in Phoenix, Arizona. This plan provides safety directions to Public Safety personnel for the following areas: (1) Personal Safety, (2) Environmental Safety and (3) Response Safety.

Personal Safety:

Public Safety personnel will use all appropriate personal protective equipment during planned scheduled events.

Due to the nature of this event there is a potential for deployment of riot agents. Personnel equipped with a gas mask should keep the mask accessible at all times. Personnel not possessing a gas mask should remain aware of the situation and evacuate the area prior to deployment of riot agents.

This event has a rally and potential march; this places personnel on motorcycles, bicycles, and on foot. Personnel should be aware of their surroundings and cognizant of traffic as they perform their duties. Safety vests should be worn while working in and around traffic.

Public Safety personnel will make frequent use of hand-washing, antiseptic lotions or disinfecting wipes while working among large crowds. Personnel should carry an N-95 mask for use in case of exposure to persons suspected of being infectious.

Environmental Safety:

Public Safety personnel will be aware of their assigned work areas and notify Command / Safety of all work related environmental safety issues.

Public Safety personnel will dress appropriately for all types of weather.

Response Safety:

Public Safety personnel will respond to all incidents in a safe manner using appropriate safety equipment to ensure life safety of all individuals as possible. Appropriate and timely use of additional resources is advised as needed.

Situational awareness is critical at all times. Personnel should be aware of hazards in their surroundings. Remember, safety first because accidents last.

WEB TIP CRIME NOTES
Type of Offense: Intent of violence, use of drugs
Notes: Met an Occupy nut online, she says she's from your area and has the phone number to prove it. She appears to be involved with some form of violent organization.

Has expressed intent to "take down the local power structure". desire to be killed in violent resistance as a martyr. "GOOD KILL US. That will really make people mad!"

Has indicated having friends with similar desires. "It isn't a violent revolution in whole, no occupies all over the world have made that clear, however there are people who do not follow this and these people I happen to indentify with they understand the reality of things."

Has indicated knowledge of specific plans for violent revolt, knowledge of bomb-related activities. When pressed further was reticent, claimed she did not want to give more details on the plans due to "outstanding warrants and paranoia".

Additionally, since I'm aware no crime has technically been committed there (apart from whatever the warrants are for), I've got an actual crime for you as well: illegal possession/use of marijuana, I've seen her smoking it on camera. I will attempt to get a picture in the future.

I'm well aware that the threat of violence sounds like someone yanking my chain, and it quite possibly is, but she sounds serious about this and I feel that it's better to falsely report than to not report an actual threat.

She is currently staying with her father and a twin sister, and is attending court-ordered domestic violence classes after an incident with an ex-boyfriend.
Drug Usage: Marijuana

ACTIC received a tip from a Phoenix Occupy participant that met "a nut online" that is also a participant. The tipster says the girl appears to be involved with some form of violent organization and uses drugs.
She has expressed intent to "take down the local power structure, desire to be killed in violent resistance as a martyr": "GOOD KILL US That will really make people mad!"
We are still working on identifying her girl who made the threats (only known as "Amber"), but wanted to get the information out and see if anyone recognized her. Amber say that she is paranoid and has a warrant.

Female Subject threatening

Wren, CJ

I don't remember which of you it was, but one of you knew something about a w/f, with a twin sister, claiming to be part of Occupy Phoenix who was threatening stuff online. I believe she is at it again, and I can't find any of my notes on what (whoever it was) you had told me about her. I don't want to start another big search for her, if you all already know about her- specifically who she is.

Please let me know. The TIP caller said the female suspects name was "Amber".

CJ,
I don't think we were able to identify her, and as you said, only knew her as Amber. We have a Facebook photo and tried to do facial recognition, but she was wearing glasses. I will try to see if I can access and photo and forward if I locate it.
